ORDER OF THE PROVINCIAL HEALTH OFFICER

Updated April 01, 2021

(Pursuant to Sections 30,31,32 & 39(3)& (6) B.C. Public Health Act)

- Indoor in-person religious gatherings and worship services of any size are prohibited.
- You must not attend a service at a church, synagogue, mosque, gurdwara, temple or other place of worship
- Religious services can continue using remote or virtual attendance options, like Zoom or Skype
- You can still visit your place of worship for individual activities such as guidance from spiritual leaders, contemplation, or personal prayer.
- Religious leaders may attend the home of a member of their religious community to provide religious services to the occupant.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

“The ascension reminds us that Christianity is not only an historical faith, but a faith of the present and future. Jesus is, right now, in glorified humanity on the throne of the universe, wielding as the God-man “all authority in heaven and on earth” (Matthew 28:18).

He is not just our suffering servant who came and died and rose triumphant, but our actively ruling, actively conquering king.”

David Mathis

And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was take up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

And while they looked steadfastly towards heaven as he went up, behold two men stood by them in white apparel;

Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is take up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go to heaven.

ACTS 1:9-11

Fundamental Doctrine of the Church

The basic and fundamental doctrine of the Church shall be the Bible standard of full salvation, which is repentance, baptism in water by immersion in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and the baptism of the Holy Ghost with the initial sign of speaking in tongues as the Spirit gives utterance.

Get the Facts!.....Read the Book of Acts!

Acts 1:5, 2:4, 2:38, 8:17, 10:44-48, 19:5-6

The One True God

We believe in the ever-living, eternal God: infinite in power, holy in nature, attributes, and purpose; and possessing absolute, indivisible deity. This one true God has revealed Himself as Father; through His Son, in redemption; and as the Holy Spirit, by emanation.

I Corinthians 8:6; Ephesians 4:6; II Corinthians 5:19; Joel 2:28

BC DISTRICT

UNITED PENTECOSTAL CHURCH INTERNATIONAL

BC D.A.R.E. PRAYER INITIATIVE

This week please pray for

The Spanish Community of British Columbia

Praise the Lord everyone!

I trust all is well with you & yours these days.

Our next week of prayer will be focused on the Spanish community. In 2016 statistic B.C shows a population of 64,500 Spanish individuals living in B.C., I am positive it is much greater today!

Many of us are blessed with several members in our churches from the Spanish community, let us pray over this next week for God to help us reach many more individuals around British Columbia from this culture.

Have a great weekend!

“PUSH ME!”

“But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, the harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest” (Matthew 9:36-38).

From this text, I would like to draw several points that could have a direct impact upon the Kingdom of God and its fulfillment in our day. Jesus was moved with compassion by His vision. Jesus must have been frustrated because His disciples didn't seem to be passionate about what caused tears to run down the cheeks of the Saviour. So, Jesus gave them a prayer request that would allow The Lord of the Harvest to find willing workers to reap the HARVEST THAT ONLY HE COULD SEE.

This past Easter, congregations came together to celebrate the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and on that day, He brought the harvest to the sanctuary. However, I would like to humbly offer some prayer challenges that will ensure a revival and unbelievable harvest for future times and events. If Jesus drew a harvest that day, then He also can do it for future days.

- Pray that the vision of Jesus becomes the vision of the Church.
- Pray that the compassion of Jesus becomes our compassion.
- Pray that we can hear Jesus say the harvest is plenteous.
- Pray that Jesus will give us a revelation of the harvest that He sees.
- Pray that we can be convicted that He is calling us to His harvest.
- Pray for Jesus to bring conviction upon the harvest sitting among us in the Church.
- Pray for Jesus to PUSH us from our comfort zones and allow us to reap the harvest.

ASCENSION

By David Pass

The universe is running down
From when it once did start.
Here nothing lasts, what price renown
When stops the beating heart?

But heaven 's eternal - for all time -
And God is omnipresent.
Heaven is spotless - no dirt or grime,
From here His Son was sent.

In Israel his feet have trod.
Yes - he was fully man
But also He was one with God
What an amazing plan!

He told mankind about God's will
And paid the price of sin
His sacrifice is with us still
His grace we enter in

And then He rose up from the grave
And saw His friends again.
And then in Galilee He gave
New hope to trusting men

He stayed with them for forty days
Then time to go - and He
Was taken up before their gaze
He's there for you and me.

In Jerusalem at Pentecost
The Holy Spirit came
They were as one - no longer lost.
Peter spoke in Jesu's name

And so the Good News slowly spread,
The Gentiles heard it too.
Lord Jesus is alive not dead
Repent each one of you
