Fundamental Doctrine of the Church

The basic and fundamental doctrine of the Church shall be the Bible standard of full salvation, which is repentance, baptism in water by immersion in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and the baptism of the Holy Ghost with the initial sign of speaking in tongues as the Spirit gives utterance.

Get the Facts!.....Read the Book of Acts!
Acts 1:5, 2:4, 2:38, 8:17, 10:44-48, 19:5-6

The One True God

We believe in the ever-living, eternal God: infinite in power, holy in nature, attributes, and purpose; and possessing absolute, indivisible deity. This one true God has revealed Himself as Father; through His Son, in redemption; and as the Holy Spirit, by emanation.

I Corinthians 8:6; Ephesians 4:6; II Corinthians 5:19; Joel 2:28

Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

Her children arise up, and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praises her.

BC DISTRICT

UNITED PENTECOSTAL CHURCH INTERNATIONAL

BC D.A.R.E. PRAYER INITIATIVE

This week please pray for

UPCI OF BC – SECTION 5

VANCOUVER METROPLEX AREA

Greetings Coordinators,

We have just finished praying for all the Pastors and their churches in section 5.

Over this next week, May 8-14, we would like to put a prayer covering over all of section 5.

This includes all the Vancouver Metroplex area. Such a vast amount of people and cities that do not have an United Pentecostal church in them.

Let's bind together this next week and pray God's will be done in these cities. There are so many hungry, searching people desiring to know God, we need Him to open doors and help us reach into the unchurched cities of this beautiful area of British Columbia.

Thank you so much for all you do in this ministry of prayer!
We are better together!

Sis. Corenna

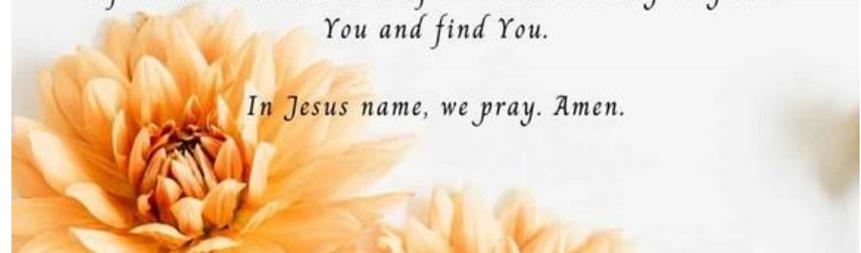

A Mother's Day Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of mothers. May these bearers of life also be bearers of your Word. May they teach and train up their children in the way they should go, so when they are old they will not depart from it (Proverbs 22:6). Even when the children are already grown, help mothers to sow the seeds that will bear the Fruit of Your Spirit. Just as a mother's work is never done, and her prayers for her children will never end. A piece of her heart is always with them.

Lord, we've learned that this huge responsibility is one that has no job description. There's no special college degree, no on-the-job training program. Help each mother to realize that You offer something even better than those things: Your Spirit and Your Word.

May the Holy Spirit guide each mother as she seeks for wisdom. Illuminate the Scriptures for her. Help her encourage her children to honor You. Give her a church family that will come alongside her and show the love of Christ to her and her family. Place godly mentors in her life and also in the lives of her children. May they seek You and find You.

In Jesus name, we pray. Amen.

You cannot be a perfect
mom, but you can be a prayerful mom.

Prayer: A Mother's Godly Influence

In my earliest conscious memory as a child, my first introduction to prayer came from my mother. From that point, she became the main source of godly influence, even unto adulthood, as a strong foundation of prayer was laid in my life, and she led by example. Basically, I heard her pray and observed her read the Bible every day. She became a role model as she advocated prayer and instilled biblical principles and morals in our home, for which I remain grateful. Godly influence in prayer, and in general, is a very important attribute in impacting the lives of others. Even II Timothy 1:1-5 relays how such an impact can be far-reaching: "...I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day...When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also."

Being a godly influence denotes helping others to greater comprehend the knowledge of Jesus and His Word and to make righteous choices. As we decide that prayer is an important factor that shapes our values and we example it as a lifestyle, then others will be positively influenced and impacted by this biblical practice. I have heard the expression that sometimes "more is learned from what is caught than taught." When we pattern our life after Christ and His example of prayer, we can effectively have godly influence over others. Are you consistently exemplifying a lifestyle of personal prayer? Are you continually involved in corporate prayer? Are you influencing others to pray through your evidential commitment?

I am reminded of a phrase I often hear my mother quote: "If Jesus had to pray, what about us? What about us?" This is so true. Jesus prayed and He impacted those around him. The disciples prayed and likewise, they influenced others to be partakers. So did the early Christians, as recounted in the Book of Acts. Below are excerpts from a presentation shared at a church on prayer by my mother (Willie Mae Stephens), including scriptural references supporting how biblical characters had a godly influence upon those around them: "

If Jesus had to pray, then what about us? What about us?" Here we see this principle: "Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee...tarry ye here and watch with me...And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed...Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. He went away again the second time and prayed...thy will be done" (Matthew 26:36-42). Also, "And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God" (Luke 6:12). Even Jesus had an "all night" prayer meeting! Jesus said that "men ought always to pray, and not to faint" (Luke 18:1).

Paul told the Thessalonians to "Pray without ceasing" (I Thessalonians 5:17). Also, "And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them" (Acts 16:25). "Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer" (Acts 3:1). Even some disciples were prayer partners! There is great power when we all join together in prayer: "And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness" (Acts 4:31). "Let us pray, pouring out our heart and soul to Him, calling unto God, and beseeching Him! Seek His face evermore. Pray, for it matters not where, God is there!" A minister coined the powerful phrase, "The course of thy life will speak more for thee than the discourse of thy lips." So, regarding prayer and your lifestyle of prayer, my question to you is now, are you a godly influence in the lives of others?
